

Please do not change NJ's "Do Not Call" Laws. It is comforting to know that telemarketers can not keep disrupting my day with unsolicited telephone calls. Every minute I have to spend on the telephone telling telemarketers that "I am not interested", is time taken away from my children, family and routine.

Thank you.